How are landmarks and historic districts chosen for preservation and restoration? Are some buildings more worthy of preservation than others? What roles do planners, developers, archaeologists, and politicians play in preservation decisions?

The class will visit Cleveland-area historic buildings and districts to explore these and other questions.

For more information call 216-687-3884

www.urban.csuohio.edu